

2025 Lake Mirror Classic Concours & Car Show

Liability & Publicity Release

The undersigned Owner and, if applicable, the undersigned additional Participant wish to participate in a collectible car show known as the Lake Mirror Classic Concours & Car Show scheduled for the weekend of October 17, 18 and 19, 2025 in Lakeland, Florida. The undersigned have been advised that participation will include, but not be limited to, the display of certain of the Owner's automobiles during the scheduled weekend on designated parks and public streets of Lakeland, Florida. The undersigned are knowledgeable as to the risks, including the risk of property damage to the displayed automobile(s) and the risk of personal bodily injury resulting from participation in the event. The undersigned have also been advised that images of the automobile(s) as well as images of their persons may be taken by photograph and other means and that these images may be displayed in various media, including newspapers, television, and internet platforms.

With the intent of binding themselves and as inducement for participation in the event, the undersigned Owner and, if applicable, the undersigned additional Participant hereby release Autodynamics Foundation, Inc and the directors, officers, agents, staff and employees of Autodynamics Foundation, Inc. from any and all claims that they or either of them may have or may have in the future, or that any person claiming through them or either of them may have or claims to have against Autodynamics Foundation, Inc and its directors, officers, agents, staff and employees in connection with the above-described event, including claims arising from property damage and bodily injury.

In addition, the undersigned Owner and, if applicable, the undersigned additional Participant hereby consent to the use of any photograph or other image of automobile(s) entered in the display as well as any image of their persons as such images may be published in any media before, during or after the event.
